What are Analytics?

Analytics collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. This is done to find out such things as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site, these are collected through the use of third-party widgets (Google Analytics, Twitter, Facebook, YouTube). These will be referred to as cookies throughout this privacy notice.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file of text that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your electronic device (computer, phone or tablet etc). Cookies are anonymous and contain no personal information that will identify you personally.

We use third-party widgets (standalone application that is inserted into the website i.e. a newsfeed or banner) on the site, such as Google Analytics, Twitter, Facebook and YouTube. These widgets may set their own cookies, and they also may use cookies that we have no control over. However, the cookie information from each of these sites is usually anonymous, unless you are logged in to those third-party systems while you are on our website.

What do we use cookies for?

We use cookies so that:

- We can distinguish you from other users of our website and provide a good experience
- We can remember the information you've provided us with while on our website, so you don't have to keep reentering the information whenever you visit a new page
- We can look at how you use our website so that we can improve it for other users

We do not use cookies to:

- Monitor your usage of other websites (privacy intrusive cookies)
- Collect any personal information about you (without your express permission);
- Collect any sensitive information
- Pass data to any advertising networks
- Pass personal data to third parties

What cookie types do we use?

Cookie types and expiry:

- Session cookies – these are temporary and are erased when you close your browser at the end of your visit, or if you delete them earlier. The next time you visit our website we will not recognise you and will treat you as a completely new visitor.
- Persistent cookies – these remain on your hard drive until you erase them or they expire, this is after 12 months.

We may use one or more of the following kinds of cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies – these cookies are required for the operation of our website. This can include cookies that will enable to log into a secure area of our website e.g. staff, parent or pupil area. Without these the website will not work as designed. These cookies do not require consent.
- Functionality cookies – these cookies require consent. They are used to recognise you when you return to our website. The content is then personalised to you and can greet you by name (once in the secure area) or remember preferences you may set.
- Analytical/performance cookies – these cookies require consent. They allow us to count and recognise the number of visitors to our site. It allows us to see when and how visitors navigate our website. Using these cookies helps us improve our website and make popular searched items easier to find. We also use the following widget(s) for this purpose:
 - Google Analytics – they help us analyse how you engage with and use our website.

For more information on how Google Analytics collects and processes data using cookies, please visit www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners

- Twitter – Twitter for Websites is a suite of tools bringing Twitter content and functionality to our webpage. This enables the Twitter audience to share our Twitter content and follow our feed. - Microsoft Internet Explorer
- Opera
- Apple Safari

To find information relating to other browsers, visit the browser developer's website.

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites, visit www.tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout

You can also use specialist software that protects against malicious cookies. These applications can be customised to let you change the content of the cookies you want to receive or will allow to be stored on your device.

Purpose and lawful basis for processing

The lawful basis we rely on to process your personal data is either Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR, for example when we require your consent for the optional cookies we use, or Article 6(1)(f) which allows us to process personal data when it's necessary for our legitimate interests. For example in order to maintain the integrity of our IT systems and the continuity of our business.

What are my rights?

You have the rights to withdraw consent at any time for the use of optional cookies, as we also process your personal data for legitimate interests as stated above, you have the right to object to our processing of your personal data. There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your objection, which will depend on why we are processing it.
